

7 WAYS COMPANIES CAN CREATE A SAFER WORK CULTURE

START AT THE TOP UPPER MANAGEMENT SHOULD

- 1 CREATE a culture of safety.
- 2 COMMUNICATE the importance of safety.
- 3 REWARD those who make an effort to keep the workplace safe.

ENCOURAGE INVOLVEMENT

URGE employees to take an active role in your safety program.

ESTABLISH safety committees that include staff members of all levels.

CONSIDER building safety award, suggestion, and review programs.

EMPLOYEE SURVEY

IDENTIFY, ASSESS & CONTROL HAZARDS FOLLOW THE HIERARCHY OF CONTROLS TO ELIMINATE AND REDUCE RISK

- 1 REVIEW OSHA 300 logs.
- 2 CONDUCT safety inspections.
- 3 EVALUATE new equipment and processes.

EVALUATE & IMPROVE

ASSESS AND IMPROVE YOUR SAFETY PROGRAM BY REVIEWING MEASURES SUCH AS:

- Injury and illness statistics
- Safety inspection reports
- Employee training results
- Reports from your USL&H carrier

TRAIN, TRAIN, TRAIN

PROVIDE ONGOING SAFETY TRAINING FOR ALL EMPLOYEES.

- Recognition of hazards
- Protective measures
- Company safety practices
- Emergency action procedures

INVESTIGATE EFFICIENTLY & INTELLIGENTLY

PROMPTLY INVESTIGATE WORKSITE ACCIDENTS AND NEAR MISSES, COMMUNICATING WITH ALL RELEVANT TEAM MEMBERS TO IDENTIFY CORRECTIVE MEASURES.

KEEP DETAILED RECORDS

DEMONSTRATE THE EFFECTIVENESS OF YOUR SAFETY PROGRAM

- Reports of injury
- OSHA 300 forms
- Employee training records
- Safety inspection reports
- Accident investigations
- Job safety analyses
- Atmospheric monitoring data
- Safety meeting minutes